JAS. KENNEDY & SON.

100 Dollars Reward.

I WILL give the above reward to any person who will return to my possession, negro LAWRENCE, who assumes the surname of FENWICK. This fellow left my farm, on the Wicomico river, in Charles county, Md. on the 6th July, in consequence of his own outrageous conduct towards my overseer. He is a negro of a fine erect figure, good features, a smooth black skin, rather above the middle stature, of a youthful appearance for one of thirty years of age, and of great plausibility and natural smartness. His ears grow remarkably close to his head, and on the inside of his lower lip he has a white mark or spot. I purchased him 4 years ago of the estate of Mrs. P. H. Courts, of this county. I am led (by circumstances which have come to my knowledge since he absconded,) to believe that he will endeavor to make his way to King George county, Va.; should he not take this route, he will probably be met with in the District of Columbia, or in the upper counties of this state, on his way to Pennsylvania. I apprehend he will change his name, and if committed to jail, refuse to state to whom he belongs, as the misconduct which preceded his departure, & his absconding, have all appeared since to have been premeditated. He took all his clothes with him, of which he had a large number; among them—a new bear-skin overcoat, a long close-bodied blue coat, a pair of striped jean pantaloons, one or more white waistcoats, besides many articles of coarse clothing; these, however, he will probably exchange, or sell them for cash to defray his travelling expenses. I will give the above reward to any person who will bring him home to me, or FIFTY DOLLARS if confined in jail, and notice given me, so that I recover him.—Should he be taken out of the state, I will also pay all reasonable costs and charges which may attend the bringing him home.

Notice.

To Wheelwrights, Blacksmiths, Tanners, Harness-Makers, Saddlers, Hatters, &c.
BELIEVING as I do, that Providence, at Fairfax Court-House, would be a suitable situation for mechanics of the above description, I offer to such, lots in that village for sale, on ground rent for ever—will build and furnish suitable houses and rent to them, or furnish brick to them to build with; and invite any who feel disposed to settle there, for the purpose of carrying on their respective trades to advantage, to come and view the situation. It is a very public place, the centre of the county, where the superior and county courts are held. The Little River Turnpike Road passes through this little town from Alexandria westward, and where all the public meetings for the county, &c. are held; and where trades of the aforesaid description being carried on, would meet with great encouragement, and be a public convenience to the country around. No situation can be more healthy—good water, and fire wood cheap. Mechanics of the above description must generally depend on the country people, farmers, &c. to be their customers. Here they would be in a convenient situation for all the purposes. I invite a call, and view for themselves. I would also furnish lots adjacent, from one to five acres each, for cultivation, pasture, &c. on moderate terms; all of which can be shown, and terms made known, on application to MICHAEL RATCLIFFE, Fairfax Court-House, Va.

RAN away on the 28th of April, from the farm of the subscriber, in Dogue Neck, Fairfax Co. Virginia, negro HARRY, aged about twenty three years, about five feet ten inches high, very black, well built, has a considerable impediment in his speech, when spoken to evinces much confusion, and replies almost unintelligibly: had on when he left home, a much worn suit of domestic cloth. I have every reason to believe that he is endeavoring to pass for a free man, and as such went off in some of the bay craft during the late fishing season. All masters of vessels are forewarned from harboring or taking into their employ said negro, under penalty of having the law rigidly enforced against them. I will give twenty dollars, if taken in the county of Fairfax, or district of Columbia; if beyond that distance, the above reward, provided he is secured in jail so that I get him again.

Missouri and Illinois Bounty

THE subscriber has now for sale a number of the most valuable tracts, in both of those rich and improving bodies of lands, and can supply applicants with any number they may wish, and in any part of either territory. Every person who visits the Western Country, particularly those who intend settling there, should take with them a few quarter sections of those lands; every man who has a young and growing family, and can spare a few hundred dollars, should not miss the present opportunity of getting some of those lands; as it will insure to his children a greater certainty than any other investment he can possibly make for their benefit.—From the immense emigration to both Illinois and Missouri, particularly to the military lands, it is certain there must be a great rise in the price very soon, and those who miss the present opportunity, will never again have a chance to do so well. The patents will be sold very low, for cash, good notes or bonds at short dates, or bank stock in the Central Bank of Georgetown and Washington, and the Farmers and Mechanics' Bank of Georgetown. As I am a large dealer in Military Bounty Lands, I can supply any number that may be required.
Please to apply at my Exchange Banking House, Bridge-street, Georgetown.

We understand from credible authority, that orders have been issued by the navy department, to double the number of workmen engaged in various ports in building ships of the line, for the purpose of hastening the completion of these vessels. Whatever may be the cause of these orders, the policy of prompt preparations to meet the emergency of war must ever be considered as wise. (Franklin Gazette.)

A GOLD MEDAL was this morning presented by Col. Thomas Sergeant, aid to the Governor, at the Mansion House, to Captain ELLIOTT, of the United States navy, as a testimonial of the high sense which the commonwealth of Pennsylvania entertains for his gallantry in the glorious action with the British squadron on Lake Erie, on the 10th of September, 1813. The medal for Commodore PERRY has been ready some time; but his absence on the public service delays its presentation. (Ibid.)

MELANCHOLY ACCIDENT.

Last evening, John Callahan, house carpenter, of the Northern Liberties, fell from the scaffold of a brick house, erecting in Fourth-street, above Wood-street, and instantly expired. (Centinel.)

Our correspondent at Norfolk, (says the Baltimore Telegraph) writes under date of August 16, that captain Webb, had just arrived there, in 20 days from Maracaibo, bringing the following intelligence: About the time of his sailing, (26th ult.) news reached there of the defeat of general Morillo at Columbus, a small place a short distance up the Lake, and that his loss was very great indeed. He had since made a requisition for more troops, ammunition, and clothing, but it was not probable it would be filled. The Patriots were highly elated at their success, as the odds were greatly against them. Captain W. did not understand the name of the general commanding the Patriot force.

Norfolk still continues healthy.—The disease lately prevalent among children has greatly abated, but the weather remains warm, with, occasionally, a refreshing shower. The winds for the last 7 days have prevailed generally from the southward; the three last a little westerly: the height of the mercury in Fahrenheit, during the same time, in this room, at 2 o'clock, P. M. has been from 86 deg. to 90 deg.—average height 88 deg.

P. S. The publication of the "Norfolk and Portsmouth Herald," by its former editor, Mr. Broughton, will be resumed on Monday.

New-York, August 18.

Arrived at Quebec, 9th inst. H. M. ship Cyrene, from Halifax, with 500,000 dols.; ship Nautilus, 42 days from Jamaica, with 160 troops; ship Ocean, Davis, from do. with 210 troops; brig Sheathum, from Sunderland, with 85 settlers. Part of the above troops are to be disbanded at Quebec.

Attempts are making in England to divert the current of emigration from North America to the Cape of Good Hope.

Three hundred and seventy men and fourteen officers, of the York Chasseurs, arrived at Quebec on the 8th inst. from Jamaica.

Deaths in Philadelphia last week, 92, of whom there were 33 adults and 59 children—one of remittent, one of bilious, one of nervous, and one of typhus fever.

Eighty thousand roubles, in bank notes, were burnt at St. Petersburg, in May last, by the commissioners of the Sinking Fund. Recent destruction by fire.—At Posen, Russia, 235 houses; and at Kuckel, 116 houses, 52 barns, individuals, cattle, &c.

Norfolk, August 14.

The Artisan government armed schooner, Le Constantia, Richard Hambly, commander, 6 guns and 30 men, from a cruise of three months off the coast of Cuba, and last from Exuma, which port she left 10 days since, has put in here for provisions, being short. A brig from Bath, Me. and a schr. from Boston, were left at Exuma sickly taking in salt—the crew of the schooner were very sickly.—Capt. B. Townner, master, and Mr. George B. Ford, passenger on board the schr. Leander, of New-York, which was carried off by the crew, from the Island of Hanagagua, on the 1st of July, while the captain and Mr. Ford were on shore, came passenger in the Constantia, from Long Island, one of the Bahamas.

FROM LONDON PAPERS.

Received at the office of the New-York Advertiser.

London, June 21.

It is now quite certain that the Spanish expedition, which has been so many months under preparation at Cadiz, will not, at any rate, sail until the beginning of September next. The Commissioners appointed by Ferdinand VII. to undertake the management of it, have sent instructions to the agents in London to contract for 5,000 carbines, which are intended for the use of the cavalry, to be shipped on board the armament, and it is supposed that the Government at Madrid have determined to increase the number of horse regiments, and have in consequence ordered this additional quantity of arms, which are to be of the very best description. The Commissioners, owing to the postponement of departure of the expedition, do not require they should reach Cadiz before the end of August. We understand that the Spanish Government has received an official account from the Vice Roy of Lima, in which he states, that he was in daily expectation of an attack from the squadron under Lord Cochrane, but that there was a sufficient force at Lima to prevent that city from being molested by the invaders, should they make a landing at Callao. It is said that it was in consequence of the receipt of this communication that the San Telmo, Alexander and Prueva, ships of war, were despatched to the coast of Peru, without any reinforcements on board being intended only to protect the Royalist vessels in those seas.

[Courier.]

Madrid, May 30.

The following is a very interesting article, and drawn up with great truth:—"Since the time when Ferdinand and Isabella began to create in Spain a military marine, it never has been in so deplorable a state as it is at this moment. In order to form an exact idea of the state of things, we must go back to the year 1796, when King Charles IV. had the inconceivable weakness to conclude an offensive and defensive alliance with the French Republic; it is from that instant that all the misfortunes of our Navy are to be dated. It was then composed of 85 ships of the line, of which 20 carried from 80 to 130 guns. Sixty were actually in commission, and most of the rest capable of being repaired. The infantry of the marine consisted of 12 battalions, each of 1000 men; and the artillery of 20 brigades, making 3000 men effective. The three military posts of Cadiz, Carthagena and Ferrol, had immense docks, arsenals, and magazines, amply furnished with every thing necessary for the service of the Navy. Those of La Carracca, in particular, were admired by all the strangers who visited them. Our alliance with France, and the unjust invasion, which was one of the fatal consequences of it, have destroyed every thing. Our Navy has been annihilated, our arsenals are empty, and there is not timber sufficient in the arsenal to build four ships of war. The infantry and artillery of the marine have been employed in the defence of the country, and nothing remains of those fine corps but the miserable wrecks.—The department of Ferrol received from Navarre excellent oak timber for the Navy; those of Cadiz and Carthagena found the same resource in the four kingdoms of Andalusia; now those fine forests may be said to be annihilated. The island of Cuba furnished a great quantity of cedar, which was employed at La Carracca. This resource has now failed, because we have not the means of conveyance; and the privateers who infest the seas render it still more difficult. On the other hand, the Dutch brought us from the North, masts, hemp, & other articles. These arrivals have become very rare.—Thus, by a series of unhappy circumstances, the Spanish Navy is in a state of ruin, which it will be very difficult ever to repair. Hence the government has been obliged to apply to Russia for some vessels, for the great expedition. Unhappily this assistance has not answered the expectations that were formed of it; these vessels, in spite of all the repairs they have undergone, are very ill built. Such are the causes which have delayed for above a year, the departure of the grand expedition for South America. Posterity will hardly believe, that the armament of a squadron has cost more trouble, labor, and embarrassment, than would have sufficed, twenty years ago, to send fifty ships of the line and thirty frigates from our ports.

An article from Madrid says, a new Insurgent leader has sprung up in Mexico, who pretends to be descended from Montezuma.

The following is an extract of a letter, dated Stockholm, June 4:—

"On the 2d the King set out for the camp at Schonen. His first Master of the Horse, Count Brake, was the only person who rode with him in his carriage. Immediately after his Majesty's departure, the provisional regency, appointed to act in temporary emergencies during his absence, assumed its functions. As soon as the camp is raised, the King, according to report, is to visit the baths at Helsingburg, and from thence make a tour in his dominions: it is probable that the distant province of Dalecarlia will this summer, for the first time, be visited by his Majesty.—For two days before the King left Stockholm some extraordinary movements were observed among the diplomatic body assembled here. It is understood that the negotiations carried on in London, under the direction of the great European powers concerning the liquidation of the public debt of Norway, and in conformity with the 6th article of the treaty of Kiel, have been brought to a termination, and that the result agreed to by the plenipotentiaries of the different Powers arrived here on Sunday, and was immediately laid before the King. The ratification of this arrangement it is said, has been determined upon by the King. The terms, it is stated, are not materially at variance either with the interests of the high contracting parties, or the assurances formerly given by the mediating Powers.

Vienna, June 5.

Princess Catharine of Montfort has gone to Carlsbad with her sister-in-law, Madame Eliza Baccocchi. Jerome Buonaparte and M. Baccocchi remain at Shennau. It is remarked, that the surveillance which was exercised towards the members of the Buonaparte family has been for some time relaxed. It has become less necessary, since opinion has been entirely alienated from that family.

Frankfort, June 12.

The propensity to emigration increases progressively in the kingdom of Wurtemberg. Several societies direct these emigrations to America. It is said that several thousand persons have resolved to go and settle there. Some emigrants have lately returned from Odessa, with full powers from such of their companions as have still money to receive in their former country, in order to terminate their affairs.—They have brought letters from emigrants to their friends who have remained at home, of which copies are in circulation in the kingdom.

We learn from Bohemia, that the two Princes of Schwarzenburgh, Prince Metternich, and Prince Blucher, are expected at Carlsbad, which will be very brilliant this season. Louis Buonaparte is expected in July at Marienbad.

Law Report—Court of Chancery, June 19.

PRINCESS OF WALES v. LORD LIVERPOOL.

The Solicitor-General rose to submit a motion to his Lordship in this cause; when he was interrupted by Mr. Martin, who observed, that perhaps his Lordship would not be troubled with the motion at all, if it was allowed to stand over for a few days. It was accordingly ordered to stand over.

London, July 22.

The following notice was posted at the bank yesterday morning:—"The public are requested to take notice, that the receipts for the deposit on the loan of 12,000,000 for the service of the year 1819, are now ready for delivery at the chief cashier's office."

June 23.

A correspondence between the Commissioners of Customs and the Lords of the Treasury, published by order of the House of Commons, discloses at once the criminality and punishment of a great number of tide-waiters, tide-surveyors, and watermen, at the port of London, in consequence of their having, in violation of their duty, and of solemn oaths, taken fees in their several offices! There appears to have been, on the part of the Lords of the Treasury, an humane desire to save young offenders from the penalty of the law, which was dismissed from office; as well as to make a distinction between those who confessed; and those against whom the crime was proved. But on consulting the Attorney and Solicitor General, the act was found imperative, and all whose criminality was established (about 40 in number, of surveyors and acting surveyors) have been dismissed.

It is said, that "so considerable a part of the waterguard are implicated in these practices, that if proof could be had, it might involve more than 500." We mention this for the purpose of expressing our regret, and even anger, that men in superior stations should be induced for some slight hope of accommodation, to tempt poor creatures like these to violate their duty. The Surveyor-General conducted their inquiry; but how came he to be ignorant of the practices which were carried on under him for so long a period.

We are sorry to announce the death of that most respectable Judge, the Right Hon. Robert Dundas, of Arncliffe, Lord Chief Baron of the Court of Exchequer.—This melancholy event took place on the 17th inst. at half past 3 o'clock, after a long and severe illness. His Lordship was in his 60th year, and has presided as Lord Chief Baron in the Court of Exchequer for 18 years, being appointed in 1801.

(FROM A CORRESPONDENT.)

Mr. Owen has called a select meeting, in which the real cause of the present distress, arising from the want of employment is likely to be developed, and the subject temperately discussed; and this, we hope, will lead to the adoption of some good practical remedy. The meeting was to take place this day, but it has been postponed to Saturday, the 26th inst. at the particular desire of the Dukes of Kent and Sussex.

Many of the weavers who refused to take the oath, have returned to their looms: some, who too foolishly bound themselves by it, have left the town and others continue to ramble about in a state of destitution.—Those who have work at the advanced prices, are not at all better off than heretofore: their number is small, and they do not obtain full employment; moreover, they are obliged to pay a portion of their wages towards the maintenance of their brethren who still stand out. (Carlsile Patriot.)

ASHTON-UNDER-LINE.

In pursuance to public advertisement, a meeting of the inhabitants of Ashton under-line and its neighborhood, took place on Monday, the 14th instant, at Hurst. By one o'clock, the hour at which the business commenced, the assemblage consisted of from 12,000 to 15,000 people, and was still increasing.

The Rev. J. Harrison was called to the chair, who, after reading the requisition for the meeting, opened the business by apologizing for the unprepared state in which he was to perform the important task which had devolved upon him. He dwelt with energy on the present distresses of the country, and the necessity of obtaining redress for all grievances. The time had now arrived when misguided opinions were about to be revised, and acted upon in a shape that must ultimately render them triumphant over despotism. The hard earnings of the industrious, wrung from the sweat of their brows, had hitherto pampered the idle and the indolent: and the very panders of office, with morality on their lips and blasphemy in their hearts, with whips in their right hands and scorpions in their left, were the first to treat with contempt the supplications of a brave and long suffering people. He concluded with a most pathetic appeal upon the deplorable condition of the laboring poor, and their half-starved and famished progeny, and exhorted the people to the preservation of peace and good order.

A letter from Joseph Johnson, Esq. Manchester, enclosing an address to the meeting, and the address itself, were then read. He remarks, in his address, how singular it is that the laboring classes should be in such extreme distress in a country abounding with every improvement, both in agriculture and manufactures, which the present state of science could furnish; and speaks with detestation of the measures adopted to prevent the importation of corn—a measure calculated merely to serve the landed proprietors, while rents and taxes are increased and the laborers wages reduced.

A deputation from the Stockport Union-rooms, next read an address to the meeting and proposed some resolutions, which were afterwards embodied among those adopted by the meeting.

Mr. Wright Smith then addressed the meeting, and expressed a strong hope that the borough tyrants would soon hear their infamy proclaimed even in their own tabernacle; and concluded by intimating that a meeting of the inhabitants of Stockport and its neighborhood, having in view the attainment of the same laudable objects as the present meeting, would be held that day fortnight.

Mr. Smith was followed by Mr. John Thacker Saxton, who begged to propose that means should be taken for establishing a regular communication from one extremity of the kingdom to the other. A resolution to this effect was proposed and carried.

Dr. Healy called the attention of the meeting to the numerous struggles which the friends of freedom had made, and hitherto with no other effect than that of adding new stores to their already abundant stock of information. The people, however, had become almost desperate at these, and scorn which had been heaped upon them. This desperation it was necessary to check, and this could be done only by restoring the constitution to purity. He invoked the people to rouse from their degraded lethargy, but not to act with violence. The people regent himself would soon be convinced, could they approach him with their complaints, that he had been surrounded by the basest of mankind.

Other gentlemen spoke, and various resolutions, with votes of thanks to the friends of liberty, were carried.

The people dispersed without tumult; after which a party, consisting of about 50 persons, dined together, and spent the evening with great conviviality. The resolutions dwelt on the following topics:—The distresses of the people—the causes of the evils that assail them, and the means of remedy, viz universal suffrage, annual parliaments, &c.—the constitution of the house of commons as now existing, which is styled a mockery—the distribution of the hard earnings of the industrious, not for beneficial purposes, but in prodigal expenditure, as for example, 22,000,000 of snuff boxes, 10,000,000 a year to the duke of York, though possessed of 40,000 a year, for performing the least of all duties—the corn laws—contempt of petitions—suspension of laws to keep men in dungeons, and acts of indemnity to screen from deserved punishment—the necessity of resistance to increased taxation until every sinecure and pension be abolished.

WATERLOO TROPHIES.

A London paper of the 20th of June, states that on Friday week a numerous and fashionable party attended at the late Museum in Piccadilly, to witness the sale of the carriage and other things which belonged to Napoleon Bonaparte, which were captured at Waterloo. The articles were all eagerly bought up, and some of them at most extravagant prices. The following statement of the prices given for some of the things will serve to shew in what estimation these relics are held:—The carriage sold for 168*l.*; small opera glass, 5*l.* 5*s.*; tooth brush, 3*l.* 13*s.* 6*d.*; snuff box, 168*l.* 19*s.* 6*d.*; military stock or collar, 1*l.* 17*s.*; old slippers, 12*l.*; razor, (common) 4*l.* 4*s.*; piece of sponge, 17*s.* 6*d.*; shaving brush, 3*l.* 14*s.*; shirt 2*l.* 5*s.*; comb, 1*l.*; shaving box, 7*l.* 7*s.*; pair of old gloves, 1*l.*; old pocket-handkerchief, 1*l.* 11*s.* 6*d.* Many other articles sold equally high.

It gives us great pleasure to have it in our power to give the following pleasing result of the late disturbances at Gibraltar between the American and British officers. We have seen a letter from an officer of the American squadron at Gibraltar, stating, that a Court of Enquiry was held on board the Guerriere, on the first of July, by request of Governor Don, who had brought charges against the American officers for breaking the peace of the garrison. The court completely exculpated our officers from any blame; and Captain Johnson, of the British army, had apologized for his conduct, and that of his fellow officers, in relation to the late disturbances at Gibraltar. (Gazette.)

Baron Stackelberg, Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary from the Court of Sweden to the United States, arrived here yesterday in the ship Martha Freeman, from Stockholm. (Ibid.)

Alex'a. Common Council.

AN ACT,

Respecting the landing and storing of Hides. Sec. 1. Be it enacted by the Common Council of the town of Alexandria, That between the first day of June and the first day of Nov. in each year, no hides, excepting domestic dried hides, shall be landed or stored in any place within that part of the town which is comprehended between Gibbon, Oronoko, and West streets, and the river Potomac, without first obtaining permission in writing from the board of Health for the town of Alexandria, signed by the president thereof.—Every person who shall offend herein, shall forfeit and pay for each offence fifty cents per hide for each and every hide so landed or stored.

Sec. 2. Be it enacted, That the fines and penalties imposed by this act, shall be paid half for the use of the informers, and the other half to the use of the Common Council, and shall be recoverable by warrant before the mayor, or any magistrate for the county of Alexandria, or by action of debt or information in any court of Record.

Sec. 3d. Be it enacted, That all acts or parts of acts coming within the purview thereof, are to be null and void, unless they shall be confirmed by the passage of the Council of August, 1819.

Valuable Land for Sale.

THE subscriber will sell at private sale, the tract of land on which he lives, containing about Fifteen Hundred Acres.

It joins the town of Warrenton, the seat of justice for Fauquier county—it is 42 miles from Alexandria, the city of Washington and Georgetown; 40 from Fredericksburg, and 45 from Winchester. This estate, in a neighborhood celebrated for health and good water, is well adapted to grazing and to the growth of corn and wheat. The turnpike road leading from Alexandria to Warrenton is finished, with the exception of seven miles. The improvements are a two story house, about fifty feet long, in the suburbs of Warrenton; two houses for over-seers; a large barn, stables, and every necessary house for a farm. On the property are good apple orchards, and a variety of other fruit trees. This tract is now divided into two farms—each of which has a superabundance of wood, and is laid off into six fields under good fences, with running water in every field. I believe there is a sufficiency of stone on the land to enclose the whole tract. Both farms have been under a course of clover and plaster for several years, by which they have been much improved, the plaster acts with very great effect. The subscriber will divide the tract to suit purchasers. The terms are one third down, with an accommodating credit on the balance, if he sells a part; but only one fourth if the purchaser buys the whole tract, together with the stock of horses, cattle, sheep, hogs, the farming utensils of every description, and all the provision that may be on hand for the support of the farm.

100 Dollars Reward.

RAN AWAY on the 25th of April last, a man called NED, formerly the property of Mr. Fitzhugh, of Fairfax, and by him sold to Hepturn & Dundas. He had on when he went away an old country blue and white cloth coat, and kersey trousers—his right hand in a sling, in consequence of the kick of a horse. Ned is a stupid looking fellow, and hesitates very much when he speaks: I will give fifty dollars if apprehended in the District, or the above reward for apprehending him out of the District, so that I get him again.

PUBLIC NOTICE.

IS hereby given, that the annual quotas required of country members became due on the 4th instant—those required from the town members have been due for some time.—It is impossible in the collection of either to give such indulgence as heretofore. The low state of the country funds demands punctuality on the part of the members, and an equal necessity (tho' owing to a different cause) exists for punctuality in the town's delinquents.—After the 15th of August, all delinquents will be proceeded against at the September courts, this latter course, however unpleasant, is one absolutely due to the punctual members, upon whom should not be thrown the sole support of the institution, whilst the delinquents are entitled to equal advantages.

The members residing in Alexandria & Fairfax, are informed their accounts are lodged in the Farmers' Bank of Alexandria, where payments may be made.

JOHN HOPKINS

Hill and Dale, April 20.

Gunston for Sale.

THIS elegant estate is situated on the Potomac, 16 miles below Alexandria—it is bounded on three sides by the Potomac and Pohick creek, and contains nearly 3,000 acres of land, level and fertile, to which are attached six shad and herring fisheries, two of which command the river channel. This land will be laid off in four tracts, so as to have one or more fisheries to each; these tracts will be again divided if requisite. This estate is level and beautifully situated, very fertile, and remarkably healthy. Plaster acts with an effect equal to that of any part of Virginia or Pennsylvania.—I have used 500 bushels in twelve months, and such is its beneficial operation, that were I to keep this land I should considerably increase the quantity. A manufacturing mill is distant about two miles, on a stream navigable for vessels carrying 1200 bushels of wheat, where the Baltimore and Dist. of Columbia prices are given for grain being bound on 3 sides by water, a small extent only of fence is necessary to inclose the whole; it would be admirably adapted to grazing. The improvements are a large and very substantial brick mansion, 40 by 70 feet, with every necessary out-house, three commodious barns, houses for Negroes, and fish houses at each of the fisheries. 120,000 bricks and 1000 bushels of lime are just burnt on the premises. There is a considerable extent of live fence, both useful and ornamental, two orchards of well selected apples and peach, besides an abundance of other choice fruit. More than 150 acres are in clover, 200 in corn, and land is in preparation for sowing 250 bushels of small grain. Any quantity of hay can be cut from the low grounds, some of which (and all might) have been reclaimed at a trifling expense. The river and creeks, abound with wild fowl, particularly canvas backs, the woods with deer and a variety of other game. Mules, cattle, highly improved sheep, farming utensils and household furniture can be had. The terms of sale will be accommodating. Property in any of the cities, negroes, bank stock, western lands, or lands near the Ridge, will be taken in payment.—Letters must be addressed to me at Pohick Church, Fairfax county, Virginia.

S. Drew, Merchant Tailor,

Removed from Fairfax-street to the corner of King and Columbus streets, and his prices falling

RESPECTFULLY acquaints his customers and the citizens in general that he has removed as above, where he will study to give satisfaction. He has by him a small but well assorted stock of goods, which will be found on inspection to be of the best quality, the whole of which he wishes to sell low for cash, and as further inducements to purchasers he offers to cut out any goods, bought of him to any size or pattern gratis.

S. Drew aware, of the advantage a ready money business has over one where long credit is given, thinks that a distinction ought to be made in the prices in each case; and as the price of provisions are low at present, he is glad to be able to announce to those customers who will feel disposed to pay him ready money for his work, that he will reduce the price of making to them according to the present journeymen's wages; and to prevent any supposed imposition on the one hand or dissatisfaction on the other he is willing to be governed by the printed regulations of prices by which the journeymen are paid in Alexandria.

N. B. Bread, flour, beef, groceries, liquors or any thing valuable taken in exchange for clothes.

S. Drew has this day opened a tavern in the same house, where he has laid in a supply of Philadelphia and the district porters and ale, together with liquors of the best quality, and he feels confident that he shall be able to give satisfaction to all who will please to favor him with a call.—He is fitting up his house for the accommodation of boarders, travellers, &c. and from its central situation, good beds, and stabling, together with other requisites, he presumes that it will be found a convenient establishment.
